Directions for the Recommending person: The above named person is applying for admission to a professional Acupuncture training program. This program will require the applicant to develop as an instrument of this system of medicine. In the training the applicant will be challenged to learn factual and technical material as well as to learn material in experiential ways, to stay engaged and open to their own process of change as they are learning to become healers. The program places a strong emphasis on reflective practice, collaborative learning, research and rigorous scholarship, and being a self-directed-learner.

We would appreciate your candid assessment of the applicant's potential for successful completion of this program. Your comments will be held completely confidential if the applicant has waived his or her rights. Your comments are an important component of the applicant's admissions packet. If you need to use additional sheets of paper, please staple them to this form. If you have any questions, please contact Kristin Bach at 206-324-7188. Your time and effort are very much appreciated.
